Background

A black and white photograph of Charlie Chaplin as the Tramp, wearing his signature bowler hat and striped overalls, is shown working in a large industrial setting. He is leaning over a massive, complex gear system, using a wrench to adjust or tighten a bolt. The scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source highlighting the character and the intricate details of the machinery. The overall mood is one of diligent, manual labor.

Traceability

A background image of a dog, possibly a Papillon, jumping over a hurdle during an agility competition. The dog is in mid-air, with its wings and ears spread. The hurdle is a wooden frame with a diamond-patterned lattice. The ground is covered with a striped pattern. The word "Agility" is overlaid in the center in a large, bold, orange font.
